Cordelia,

Thanks for your email. We are working on the three issues that you identified below but don't yet have any resolutions. We appreciate your sharing the communications to the BU folks. We can't meet today or tomorrow, but would like to find a time early next week to discuss the issues you flag as well as to give you an update on all of the JCC-related issues. Want to suggest some times that work for your team?

-Doug

Subject: Follow up: JCC

Importance: High

Good morning Doug and Jas,

I am following up from our meeting the week of Oct 10th. Can you please advise of the status on the following matters related to the JCCs:

- Provide two NTEU representatives for the 301 Committee; the currently assigned representatives have not participated to date and appear to be unavailable
- Update on NTEU holding a meeting with their JCC reps to discuss the process/progress
- Provide a summary of the concerns from the two Examiner Committees and then we will meet to discuss whether NTEU wants time with the CHCO (Doug)

As you know last week, we started sending out employee communications around data entry questions and am happy to report we have heard back from all those we have contacted to date. Additionally, we are preparing to send communications to employees with a job changes into different occupational series. The communication should go out this week/early next week and we will open their forms for 5 business days so they can add/amend experience lines for their new role. We will provide you the list and send you a copy of the communications for your awareness. Let me know if you have any questions on the process.

Finally, I would like to schedule time today or tomorrow to discuss the following:

- JCC progress to finish (by committee)
 - Incomplete sign-offs/bypassing steps in the process
 - Need to push these forms back to a previous crediting status so that reviewers can properly sign off
- Employee Experience Result report
 - Full list of SMEs assigned to each committee
 - Anonymized employee view of experience form

Please let me know when you are available to discuss.

Regards,
Cordelia
